ARMY RELIEF nights at the Bijou theater this coming week will be among the largest social features of December. Mrs. Wilmet E. Ellis, wife of Col. Ellis of the coast artillery corps, is directing the relief benefit and has a corps of ladies working untiringly for the affair.

There is a campaign of ticket-selling being carried on by the army ladies and by the patronesses. The All-Star Players, presenting "Our Wives" will play before capacity houses on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The proceeds of the performances will be given to the Army Relief fund and as the cause is a worthy one everyone is anxious to take part.

For two weeks the ladies at Fort Rucker have been busy covering army buttons and tying them with dainty ribbons. These are to be sold as souvenirs of the occasion by the uniformed lads of the Honolulu School for Boys.

Candy, too, is to be on sale and will be in the hands of another corps of the boys from the military school. Miss Burrie Gamble, Mrs. Harold Hayden and Mrs. S. D. Barnes are on the candy committee and they have promises of many pounds of home-made candy which will be a feature of the evenings.

Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth has promised to supervise the decoration of the theater and boxes for the entertainments and as she has had much experience in decorating it is expected that the Bijou will present a gala scene on the nights of December 28, 29 and 30.

Board Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boyd of Palolo valley celebrated their 20th anniversary of their wedding Wednesday evening through the medium of a home dinner to a large number of friends at their pretty home in the valley. They were the recipients of many pieces of beautiful gifts.

A large number of those attending were from the faculty of Kamehameha schools, where Mr. Boyd is one of the instructors. The guests had the time of their lives finding their places at the long tables on which the dinner was served at 6:30 in the dining-room. After some three hours spent at the table during which there were a number of congratulatory talks from some of those present to which Mr. Boyd responded in a manner that showed he was satisfied with the past 20 years and was looking forward to 20 more of the same kind. After dinner dancing and cards filled in a most delightful evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Mengel, Mr. and Mrs. Schoening, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Ormiston, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Baty, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hopwood, Mr. and Mrs. Crozman, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Sili, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Goodstreet, Miss Knapp, Miss Gattfield, Miss Williamson, Miss Post, Miss Armstrong, Miss Sturtin, Miss Church, Miss Winslow, Mr. Benjamin, Mr. Lewis, Mr. French, Mr. Borden, Mr. Smith, Mr. Radway, Sr., Mr. Radway, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, Miss Radway.

Ormiston Birthday Party.
A week ago Wednesday a delightful birthday party was given at the Ormiston home on Eighth avenue, Kaimuki. On the back of the place cards handed around for the place tables was the query, "How old is Ann?" This created somewhat of a dark cloud on the recipients until they learned that Mrs. Ormiston's name was Ann, then followed some guessing, as there was a prize for the nearest guess as to how old Ann was. After a number of games of cards, a delightful repast was served in the living room. Among those enjoying this jolly affair were Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Schoening.

Mrs. Rietow Returned to Honolulu.
Mrs. Ray B. Rietow, who recently made a brief trip to California for her health, returned to the islands in the Wilhelmina this week. The many friends of Mrs. Rietow will be delighted to know that her health is greatly improved.

Engagement Announced.
An engagement announced recently in San Francisco which will be of interest to local army and navy folk was that of Miss Marguerite Van Vleet and Lieut. Robert Lillery Spragins. Miss Van Vleet is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Robert Campbell Van Vleet and is well known in San Francisco society and at many of the army posts, for she spends much of her time travelling with her mother. Mrs. Van Vleet and her daughter have spent most of the winter in San Francisco but left for Galveston, Texas, recently, where they were to join Col. Van Vleet, who is stationed at that post.

Miss Dorothy Hawk and Miss Margaret Hawk, recent acquisitions to the academy set.

Lieut. Spragins is also stationed at Galveston and it is likely that the wedding, which is set for the spring, will take place there.

A Christmas Dinner.
Mrs. Rosella B. Selbie, who is visiting in Honolulu, entertained at a prettily appointed dinner last evening at the Pleasanton hotel. The decorations were symbolic of the Yuletide season, and the affair was one of the jolliest of the week. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Paxson, Miss E. Wiley, Miss J. Courtwright, Mrs. Katherine M. Yates, Mr. Roscoe Perkins, Donald Gilmore, Mr. S. Weller, Mr. George Brooks and the hostess.

Dinner for Honoluluans.
A few days prior to their return to Honolulu Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ables were guests of honor at a dinner party in Oakland at which Mr. and Mrs. Chester Weaver, parents of Miss Helen Weaver, fiancée of Kenneth Ables, entertained. Other guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamum, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kierulff, Mr. and Mrs. Hart Weaver, Miss Helen Weaver and Mr. Kenneth Ables.

Visiting in Honolulu.
Mrs. Rosella B. Selbie, who is spending the winter in Hawaii, is being entertained extensively. Mrs. Selbie has found Honolulu so attractive and particularly Waikiki that she has decided to remain here indefinitely. During her visit to the islands Mrs. Selbie is a guest at the Pleasanton hotel.

These Christmas parties have always been so enjoyable that they have been greatly anticipated by the Manoaites who are young enough to participate in them.

Princess Kalaninui to Take Part in the Exposition.

According to the San Francisco Chronicle of recent date Princess Kalaninui will be in San Francisco at the opening of the fair and will take a prominent part in the social side of the official opening of the Hawaii pavilion at the exposition. Advice from San Francisco say that the Hawaii building is one of the most attractive on the grounds and every Honolulu knows that the things placed there will be beautiful for the simple reason that they come from Hawaii.

Whether or not the princess does take a part in the celebrations at the fair her many friends in San Francisco are looking forward to her visit to that city and they have already planned numerous entertainments in her honor.

Nothing has been said definitely as to whether or not Princess Kawanakoa will visit San Francisco during the fair but in all probability she will take the western trip and make a brief stay in San Francisco, where she has scores of friends.

Mrs. H. G. Dillingham on the Coast.
Mrs. Harold G. Dillingham is spending the winter visiting her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith, and her sisters in San Francisco. During her sojourn in California, Mrs. Dillingham is being entertained extensively by numerous relatives and friends. The date of her return to Honolulu is uncertain.

Mrs. R. B. Selbie, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.

An Informal Christmas Dinner.
One of the most delightful of the Christmas dinners was that at which Mrs. Harrison Hall entertained at the Courtland last evening. Her guests included Col. and Mrs. F. P. Reynolds and Maj. and Mrs. F. W. Coe.

Miss Lila McDonald Entertains.
Among the delightful Christmas entertainments for the younger set was that at which Miss Lila McDonald entertained last evening. Christmas berries and ferns were arranged in the decorations. Covers were laid for Col. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, Miss Margaret Center, Mr. Alan Lowrey, Lieut. W. G. Jones and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum's Christmas Dinner.
Entertaining at a prettily appointed dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum were host and hostess at one of the most delightful of the Christmas parties. A miniature Christmas tree ornamented the center of the table, and later in the evening Santa Claus distributed jokes from a larger tree. Mr. and Mrs. Dekum's guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wescott, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Hodgins, Miss Louise Lucas, Mr. Bert Clemmons and Mr. Guy Buttolph.

Miss Betty Case Entertains.
One of the prettiest of the Christmas dinners was that at which Miss Betty Case entertained last evening at the Pleasanton hotel. Red was the prevailing color in the decorations and quantities of Hawaiian holly and brilliant poinsettia were attractively arranged upon the table. Covers were laid for Miss Merrill, Miss Scanlon, Mr. Bert Clark, Mr. Walter Rycroft, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Smith, Maj. and Mrs. D. B. Case and the hostess.

A Christmas Eve Dinner.
Mr. Arch Brown entertained a number of friends at a progressive dinner on Thursday evening, the first of the affairs being held at the Pleasanton and the last at the Country Club, while courses were served at the Rathskeller and the University Club. The table centerpiece at the Pleasanton was an attractive arrangement of white carnations and maidenhair ferns. The guests included Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Daniels, Mr. Willis, Mr. Parker, Dr. Hooper, Mr. Derby and Mr. Eberly.

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth which has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.

Follow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion.

For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.
